Spiritual connections

JA has been coming to the church group on Sundays for several years. During the pandemic they were able to join in with the regular worship sessions on Zoom. This helped them stay connected with the Church and met their spiritual needs.

However, they were missing the regular contact with members of their own community and the opportunity to speak in their mother tongue with friends. “Most of all I missed singing and speaking in tongues that are really important parts of our religious service. Being able to worship together and in harmony is really important to our community.”
